CASE NO. 00-6035-Cr-ZLOCH

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, :

PLAINTIFF, :

v. :

RAYMOND McDERMOTT and :
MARTHA TREMINIO-DIAZ, :

DEFENDANTS. :

GOVERNMENT'S SPEEDY TRIAL REPORT

Pursuant to Local Rule 88.5, the United States files its Speedy Trial Report.

1. On February 3, 2000, the indictment in the case at bar was filed under seal.

Defendants were both arrested on February 4, 2000, and made their initial appearance in Court on that same day when the indictment was unsealed. Therefore, the speedy trial clock was triggered on February 4, 2000. 18 U.S.C. 3161(c)(1).

2. On February 24, 2000, Raymond McDermott filed a motion for substitution of counsel, the motion was granted on February 29, 2000, such that five days were excludable from the Speedy Trial calculation for Raymond McDermott. Martha Treminio-Diaz [McDermott] filed a motion for substitution of counsel on March 6, 2000; the motion was granted on March 16, such that ten days were excludable from the Speedy Trial calculation for Martha Treminio-Diaz[McDermott]..

3. On March 16, 2000, defendants and the United States filed a joint motion to continue the trial date for a period of thirty (30) days. As the motion has not yet been ruled upon, the time from March 16, 2000 to the present [or the time of the court's ruling] is excludable as to each defendant.

4. Considered separately, 36 days non-excludable time have elapsed as to Raymond McDermott, and 31 days of non-excludable time have elapsed for Martha Treminio-Diaz. The government has determined that 31 days of non-excludable time have elapsed as to the two defendants, as they are properly joined for trial and no severance has been granted. 18 U.S.C. §316(h)(7).
